

CRICKET SOUTHERN BAYSIDE CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

Cricket Southern Bayside will continue to closely monitor player behaviour in matches. Traditionally, cricket has been one sport to maintain and exhibit the highest levels of conduct and sportsmanship. While always a most competitive game, the continued strength of the sport has relied upon the acceptance of the umpire's decision and the preparedness to play within the "spirit of the game".

The areas of major concern which are unacceptable to CSB are:

- (a) The use of offensive language - generally as a disparaging remark to an opposing player or toward an umpire, or even as an expression of frustration or self-admonishment. This includes racial or religious vilification (any act that is reasonably likely to threaten, disparage, vilify, offend, insult, humiliate or intimidate another person or group based on race, religion, descent, colour or national or ethnic origin).
- (b) The questioning/disputing of the umpire's decision - often in an aggressive or sarcastic manner. This applies equally to dismissals and unsuccessful appeals as to the judgment of calls on no-balls, wides, byes, etc.
- (c) The excessive number of frivolous and ridiculous appeals - primarily aimed at pressuring and intimidating the umpire into a favourable decision.
- (d) The actions of the dismissed batter - in failing to leave the crease promptly on being given out and any equipment abuse (e.g. banging the bat into the ground or against the fence or race, etc. and/ or throwing the bat or equipment during or after his return to the pavilion).
- (e) "Send offs" – usually to a dismissed batter by the bowler or a member of the fielding side.

This can often inflame the situation and lead to a more serious altercation.

Whether or not such behaviour is evident in international or interstate cricket or whether the language used is considered "acceptable" by today's society is of little concern to CSB. CSB is primarily interested in having all cricket under its control played within the spirit and traditions of the game. CSB has two processes for the reporting and consideration of unsatisfactory behaviour:

1. Serious breaches of misbehaviour will see the player immediately reported by the umpire(s) controlling the match.

(Refer Cricket Southern Bayside Rule 9 and the section which follows - Reported Players).

2. For less serious breaches where an umpire has occasion to speak to a player regarding his behaviour, but does not believe a report is necessary, the incident will be noted on the Umpires' Match Report and the player will receive a caution. Should a player receive three such cautions in a season, he will be reported by the Cricket Southern Bayside Management Team.

In both instances, should a person be found guilty of an act of misconduct, they shall be liable for a suspension as determined by the CSB Tribunal.

The recruitment and retention of umpires has become increasingly difficult and it is certainly not being made any easier by the regularly unacceptable levels of player conduct. Few people are willing to continually subject themselves to the childish behaviour and offensive language which is too frequently prevalent on and beyond the cricket field.

All players can certainly play a role in raising the general standard of umpiring and the level of experience within the Cricket Southern Bayside panel by lifting their personal level of behaviour and permitting the umpires to concentrate on those aspects of the game for which they are responsible.

All umpires will be requested to take a firm line with respect to player misconduct especially with regard to the use of offensive language and the disputation of any decision.

All players should be well aware of the standards expected by CSB and consequently any player called to appear before the CSB Tribunal can expect little sympathy and, if found guilty, a period of suspension.

It is the responsibility of everyone involved within Cricket Southern Bayside - club officials, team captains and especially the players, to ensure a return to the levels of conduct and sportsmanship traditionally inherent in the game.

REPORTED PLAYERS

An umpire may lodge a report with the CSBMT of any player, official, member or employee of any Cricket Southern Bayside Club who engages in misbehaviour or brings the game of cricket into disrepute. Upon receipt of a report lodged by an umpire the CSBMT shall, on behalf of CSB,

- (a)(i) lay a charge against the reported player for misbehaviour or bringing the game of cricket into disrepute;
- (ii) notify the reported player and his/her club that a charge has been laid against the reported person; and
- (iii) nominate the date and time of the hearing of that charge; or

(b) in consultation with the CSB Tribunal, offer a reported player a one-match suspension without a hearing.

The acceptance of a penalty of suspension from playing in one CSB match shall be lodged in writing with the CSBMT not later than 12.00pm on the day after the CSBMT has made such offer to the reported player or his club.

If a notice of acceptance is not properly lodged the CSB Tribunal may elect to hear the charge.
